

Information Bulletin

Customs Clearance in India

The Indian customs department will be upgrading some data to their systems between the 28th of February and the 4th of March. We have been advised this may result in some delays in customs clearance into India over this period.

GKN Freight Services will keep you informed of any further developments. In the meantime, if you have any queries, please do not hesitate to contact us.

1st March 2011