

Information Bulletin

Dockers strike at Le Havre port

On the 1st, 2nd, 3rd of October, a strike has been called by the main national union in France. This will impact upon terminal handling operations and vessel loading at Le Havre port.

GKN Freight Services will be reviewing contingent actions and monitoring the situation and will keep you informed of any further developments. In the meantime, if you have any queries please do not hesitate to contact us.

29th September 2010