Economic Operator Registration and Identification (EORI)

Following a change in EU legislation, as from 01 July 2009, a new trader identification system is being introduced throughout the EU. EORI will replace the current UK TURN (Traders Unique Reference Number) from midnight on 30th June 2009.

The new EORI number will provide a unique trader identification number throughout the EU.

HM Revenue and Customs are currently in the process of contacting all companies involved in import and export to advise amended details.
