

Information Bulletin

Heavy snow hits the USA

A powerful March snowstorm blanketed much of Alabama and then moved across Georgia on Sunday, forcing some flight cancellations in Atlanta.

The Greenville-Spartanburg International Airport (GSP) and the Richmond International Airport (RIC) were closed on Sunday, March 1st for several hours due to snow removal.

Georgia transportation officials warned of potential icy conditions on the roads in middle and northern counties throughout Monday morning.

GKN Freight Services are monitoring the situation and will keep you informed of any further developments. However, please do not hesitate to contact us if you have any further queries.

2nd March 2009