

Information Bulletin

Icelandic volcanic ash alert grounds UK flights

All UK airport operations are facing major disruption following a volcanic eruption in Iceland. Many airports are closed and have cancelled flights and it is anticipated that this situation will continue throughout the day.

GKN Freight Services will be carefully monitoring the situation and liaise with any customers impacted by these circumstances. Please do not hesitate to contact us if you have any further queries.

15th April 2010