

Information Bulletin

Narita airport closed

Narita Airport has been closed following an 8.9 magnitude earthquake in Japan. Osaka and Nagoya airports are currently open and GKN Freight Services will utilise these airports while they remain open. Please note that this may impact transit times.

GKN Freight Services will keep you informed of any further developments. Please speak to your local office if you require further information.

11th March 2011