Strike action at Le Havre and Fos

We are informed that the French Confédération Générale du Travail (CGT Union) which includes stevedores, have announced strike action scheduled for 24 hours from Tuesday 7th September 6:00am.

In the event that this action goes ahead, this will impact on vessel loading at the French ports of Le Havre and Fos.

GKN Freight Services will be closely monitoring the situation and updating affected customers accordingly. However, in the meantime please do not hesitate to contact us if you have any questions or concerns.
