Strike action at Le Havre port

Due to strike action, Le Havre port terminal will be closed for both vessel and land operations from Friday 15th October 6am until Saturday 16th October 6am. It is anticipated that vessel departures to Asia Pacific will be delayed by 48 hours and departures to the USA by 24 hours. At this time no delays are expected to Brazil or Uruguay. Vessel departures to Mexico are still to be clarified.

GKN Freight Services are monitoring the situation and will keep you informed of any further developments. In the meantime, if you have any queries please do not hesitate to contact us.
