Strike at Barcelona and Valencia ports

We have been informed that the Association of Autonomous Container Transportation, a major haulage operator to and from Barcelona & Valencia ports, went on strike on 08.06.10 blocking access to and from these two ports. The strike is continuing but a meeting to resolve the dispute is planned for today.

The duration of the strike action has not been specified, however, GKN Freight Services have put contingency plans in place for those customers affected and will keep you informed of any further developments. In the meantime if you have any questions please do not hesitate to contact us.
