

Information Bulletin

Strike at Le Havre Port

The French labour union CGT representing dock workers at the French port of Le Havre, have announced a 24 hour strike commencing Monday 5th July 06:00 am until Tuesday 6th July 06:00 am.

Vessel departures from Le Havre are likely to be delayed during this period.

GKN Freight Services are monitoring the situation and will keep you informed of any further developments. However, please do not hesitate to contact us in the event that you have any questions.

2nd July 2010