Thailand Civil Disorder

Despite the current civil unrest in Thailand airfreight to and from Bangkok is largely unaffected with customs clearance proceeding as normal. There may be intermittent delays due to increased security.

Sea freight shipments via the port of Bangkok are affected by the disturbances, with the gates to the port being closed all day today 17th May 2010. It is currently impossible to clear Customs and move cargo into or from the port area. In contrast, shipments through the port of Laem Chabang are proceeding as normal, although subject to closer scrutiny by Customs.

GKN Freight Services are carefully monitoring the situation and are liaising with those customers directly affected by this situation. However, please do not hesitate to contact us if you have any questions.
