

Information Bulletin

Transport Delays in Georgia

In view of the worsening developments in Georgia, GKN Freight Services advise that vessels are waiting at anchor outside the territorial waters. This will cause significant delays to both Imports and Exports.

GKN Freight Services will keep you informed of any further developments. In the meantime, please do not hesitate to contact us if you should require any further information.

13th August 2008