Update - Lufthansa Strike Action

Lufthansa's strike action will end on Saturday after Lufthansa and the Verdi trade union reached an agreement today. However, the airline said it would only be able to operate about 90% of its scheduled flights for the next four days and warned passengers to expect continued minor disruptions for two weeks because of checks on aircraft that have backed up during the strike.

GKN Freight Services will keep you informed of any further developments. In the meantime, please feel free to contact us with any questions or concerns.
