

Information Bulletin

Update: Metal workers strike may impact on Vigo port

Metal workers in Vigo are still in discussion to decide if the proposed strike will go ahead as planned. We may only know tomorrow morning whether the strike will proceed and, if so, whether this may affect transport activities on Thursday and Friday.

GKN Freight Services are closely monitoring the situation and will keep you informed of any further developments. In the meantime please do not hesitate to contact us if you have any questions or concerns.

10th June 2009