

Information Bulletin

Update - Strike at Barcelona & Valencia ports suspended

Please be advised that the strike has been suspended. The ports are now operating as normal. However, please note that there may be some delays due to backlog.

GKN Freight Services continue to carefully monitor the situation and will keep affected parties informed of developments should this prove necessary.

11th June 2010